Two Things We Do Not Ask

WE have no need to beg you to come early in the day;—although the Stewart Block in former days never saw the present audiences equaled. The store is filled, of course, but we know how to take care of you.

We have no need to plead the "holiday rush" in excuse for delays. discomforts or broken-up stock. This is the Wanamaker Store, and holds Wanamaker quantities.

Full assortments still, including many rich and rare things, despite the vast selling, in which the Wanamaker Stores are unique; an unimpaired service: a store filled but comfortable.

A Gift-Hint in Parlor Cabinets

This is a good hint, because it is a home hint, and the gift-buyer will profit by his own thoughtfulness, if he takes our advice. Our matchless stock of Furniture for Holiday Gifts is very rich in

Parlor and Curio Cabinets. Plenty in gold, plenty in Vernis-Martin, plenty in solid mahogany and marquetry, but plenty more in the finishes less costly though scarcely

Many of these pieces are priced at 25 to 33 per cent. less than their peers can be bought for elsewhere. At $24 you can choose between Mahogany and Vernis-Martin-beauties! The assembly includes one hundred sorts at sixty prices.

Handkerchiefs "honest" is, That Are Honest Bargains superfluous, because we are talking of our own goods. But there are so many ways of cheating you in alleged handkerchief "bargains" that we can't help emphasizing it.

These are all-linen, you know, even the 12 1/2c. kind. And fine linen, too. They are all embroidered handkerchiefs. Not very many of them, unfortunately, but enough to give to-day's callers all they wish.

The $1.25 sort for $1. The 75c. sort for 50c. The 50c. sort for 25c. The 25c. sort for 1234c. Women's Shoes an every-day at $2.50 offering of $2.50 shoes they wouldn't be worth talking about at this time. But they are not—they are remarkable.

Just from the factory, and made from the much-wanted dull "oxide" kidskin, that feels like silk and wears like iron. Soles are of oak-tanned leather, welted and stitched. The accepted toe-shapes of to-day. As a matter of simple fact and shoe-experience these are $4 shoe-worths.

These papers are Stationery very richly boxed, —we can scarcely describe to you how very elaborate some of the boxes are. They vary in style and expense from those made of polished oak-real casketsto those in celluloid and paper, and very likely you'll prefer the latter, aside from the question of cost.

The paper inside the box may be practically anything you wish it to be, so wide is the variety we offer you.

Children's Boxes, 10c, to 35c. Others, 20c. to $5.50.

Broadway. If in Doubt And here's an op-Buy Books portunity to purchase books for gifts Calendars a great number of books at a third of publishers' prices,-others at about a half or very little more. This brief list as a help to selection:

help to selection:

A Book Annex opened this morning on the Fifth Floor. Toy books for children-a special stock in the A Significant bindings of the International Library,-cloth, half morocco, threequarter levant and full levant. The last two are the most expensive, and cost respectively $61 and $91.

The full levant, the most expensive, is all gone; the three-quarter levant, almost all gone,—not enough to last till Christmas. The significance of this fact needs no emphasis. People who have investigated and bought have considered that such a work is entitled to the best setting that can be given it.

A correspondent suggests that we mention the size of the volumes. A good suggestion,-you may have had the idea that they were cumbrous and heavy. Not at all, -nine and a half inches, by seven and a half, by one and a half. You can read by the hour and never fatigue the hand that holds the book.

We sell the International Library on monthly We sell the International Library on monthly payments. It contains the best of all writings since books began to be written.
